

JANUARY 2012

So....who do YOU say I am? Over the Christmas break you were asked to choice one of the four Gospels and read it in one sitting. Hopefully you spent some time thinking about the question given for this assignment. I am looking forward to your creative responses to this question and to your understanding of who Jesus Christ is!

WHO DO YOU SAY I AM? PROJECTS are due WEDNESDAY JANUARY 19TH.

Please note:

- parish school candidates are to turn their projects into their religion teacher,
- parish religious education candidates are to turn their projects into Mrs. Casselman before class

MISSING ASSIGNMENTS

For each Sacrament a period of time is set aside to prepare for that Sacrament. Prayer, study, and works of service are part of the preparation process for reception of the Sacrament of Confirmation. Candidates who do not complete the tasks assigned during this preparation time may not be ready to receive the Sacrament at this point in their lives.

Candidates with missing assignments will receive notices on Wednesday January 11 from Mrs. Casselman; an email will also be sent to parents of candidates regarding missing assignments.

All missing assignments will be due Wednesday January 25, 2012.
If a candidates choices not to complete these missing assignments a meeting will be set with the candidate and their parents to discuss the options available.
