Being a Catechist: Discovery & Growth

“As busy as we all are, finding the time to devote to being a Catechist may seem difficult. However, the leaders of the St. Giles program give us the tools and guidance to make it feasible. You may feel like you’re “learning as you go”, just like in parenthood, just like in life... but nobody ever has all of the answers anyway. We’re all continuing to discover and grow in this journey together.”

- Sarah Roberts, CGS Catechist

I have learned that passing on our faith is totally about being ourselves and sharing our beliefs with the kids and listening to their thoughts while encouraging them to be aware of how Jesus wants us to act toward each other. It is as simple as that! I can honestly say that I have taken away much more than I have given in this ministry. I have learned much more about our faith and continue to learn more each year. - Mary Mitrovich, TRE Catechist

My boys have loved learning about faith in the CGS atrium, and I felt like I was learning right alongside the children and deepening my faith in the process. As I’ve been involved with children’s formation, I’ve been pleasantly surprised to see that many catechists continue to teach long beyond the time that their children are enrolled in the Religious Education program. That is certainly true for us in the PREP program. Many of our catechists have continued to teach because they are called to be of service to the children of the parish, because they believe in the value of the Religious Education program, and because they enjoy learning along with the children.

- Sara Yount, PREP Coordinator & PREP and CGS Catechist
